GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture, you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied.
You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. adv.

When Mrs. Buchanan stepped before ing tribute to the popularity and appreciation of her untiring efforts in behalf of the club. Mrs. Buchanan possesses a personality and grace that endears her to all. She gave in an interesting report the influence of the club in many ways, especially the organizing of the Elizabeth club, which, with the exception of their war work, was one of their greatest accomplishments.

improvements that she has planned for

Bondsmen Must Be Frank As To Listed Property

For the first time in the history of the county Judge Ed Richards, of the First criminal court, will ask the new grand jury Saturday afternoon to investigate and indict all bondsmen, professional and otherwise, who list encumbered property as sureties on bonds.

The judge explained that when a person is qualifying for bond the person taking the bond in the sheriff's office asks the prospective bondsmen if the property being listed is free from incumbrances. If the bondsmen admits that it is when there is a mortgage or trust deed against the property in question, the person qualifying as bondsmen is guilty of perjury and should be punished accordingly.

H. Weiman, who was under bond, is now in the county jail because Judge Richards discovered property listed by one of his bondsmen was incumbered.
That of H. Castello. The other bondsmen for Weiman is F. E. Albert.

Weiman appeared in court for trial Tuesday. Before the court opened he was arrested on a warrant from the sheriff at Caruthersville, Mo., charging him with stealing $4,000 worth of whisky. The trial began and Wednesday Judge Richards discovered that one of Weiman's bondsmen had listed encumbered property, so the bond was withheld and Weiman sent to jail.

Since that time he has been unable to make bond. If he fails to give bail he will have to remain in jail until May 26, the date his case will be taken up.
The case was postponed Thursday, due to the illness of his attorney, Abe Cobb.
Weiman is charged with highway robbery in connection with the theft of a weekly pay roll of the Green River Lumber company, amounting to $468.89, on March 4.
